SO ORDERED.

JENNIFER L. ROCHON
United States District Judge

RE: United States v. Theodore Lewis, 23-cr-433 (JLR)

Dear Judge Rochon:

Your Honor is scheduled to sentence Theodore Lewis on June 20, 2024, and I am writing to request that Your Honor adjourn the sentencing until a date in July or August because the Supreme Court has not yet issued an Opinion in United States v. Rahimi, (22-915). The question presented in Rahimi is “[w]hether 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(8), which prohibits the possession of firearms by persons subject to domestic-violence restraining orders, violates the Second Amendment on its face.” The base offense level used to determine Mr. Lewis’ federal Sentencing Guideline is predicated on his being this category of “prohibited person.” See Presentence Report, May 23, 2024 at ¶ 44. Rahimi was argued on November 7, 2023, and Rahimi is one of the major decisions left to be decided by the Court before the term ends this month. This is Mr. Lewis’ third request to adjourn his sentence. I have conferred with the government, and the government consents to this request.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Jill R. Shellow
